

Adaptations Study Guide Key

I. Vocabulary Matching

Camouflage

Adaptation

Mimicry

Function

II. Identification

The white fur of an arctic hare: camouflage in the snow.

A spider's ability to spin webs: to catch prey.

A hummingbird's migration: to find food in warmer areas.

Thick blubber on a seal: to keep warm.

Bright coloring on a poisonous frog: to warn others from eating it.

Speckled eggs in a bird's nest: camouflage in the nest.

Sharp teeth on a tiger: to eat prey.

Short, stout beak on a cardinal: to eat seeds and other food