

Behavior, Traits, and Adaptations

Picture Vocabulary

4.L 16.2 & 16.3 Behavior, Traits, and Adaptations

Predator

An organism that hunts and feeds on another animal

Prey

An animal that is hunted as food

Adaptation

An inherited trait or learned behavior that helps an organism survive in its surroundings

Characteristics

The traits or features that cannot be changed

Camouflage

The characteristics that blend in with the surrounding environment and increase the chances of survival

Environment

The living and nonliving things that are around an organism

Trait

A characteristic or quality of an organism