

Classifying Plants

Picture Vocabulary

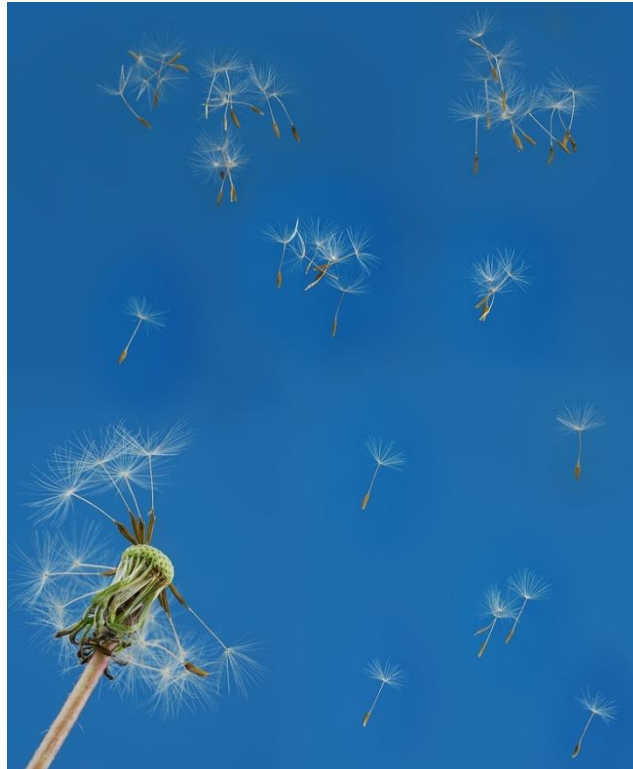

3.L 15.2 Classifying Plants

Flowering

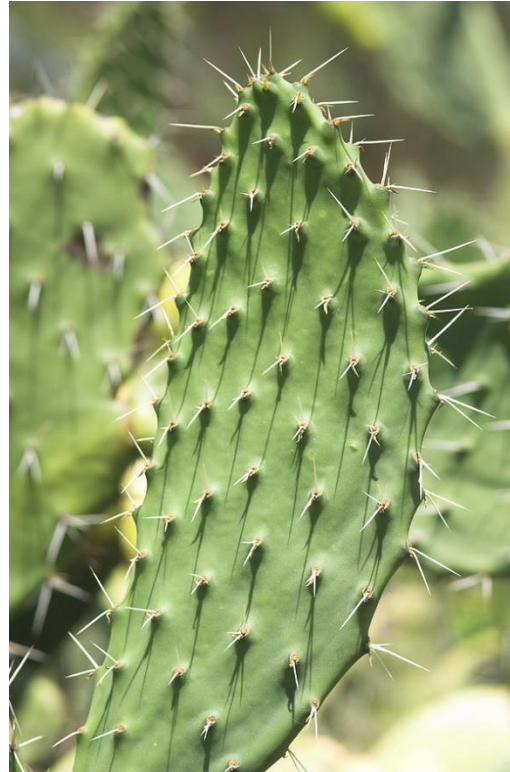

The blossom of a plant used for reproduction through pollination

Non-flowering

Rely on seed dispersal to continue the life cycle

Physical Characteristics

The way something looks, feels, tastes, smells, and sounds

Plant

A type of living thing that gets its energy from the sun and is unable to move from place to place on its own

Seed

A structure made by plants that contains a new plant

Spores

Small organisms that can survive under unfavorable conditions for a long time and then grow into new organisms