

Environmental Changes

Picture Vocabulary

5.L 15.1 Environmental Changes

Niche

The role an organism plays in its ecosystem

Migration

The seasonal movement of animals from one place to another

Hibernation

A process by which an organism slows its life functions for an extended period of time to preserve energy or to resist harsh conditions

Habitat

A place where an animal or plant lives

Reproduction

The act of making copies or similar versions of something

Survive

To be able to live successfully

Environment

The living and nonliving things that are around an organism